Beth-El
Farmworker Ministry, Inc.

In 2008, Beth-El Farmworker Ministry in Wimauma was giving one bag of groceries to less than 300 families per week. In 2009, that grew to 450 – 500 families. By the end of 2011 Beth-El averaged over 600 families who depend on Beth-El once a week for a bag of groceries.

Early in January 2011, hard freezes severely affected many crops in the Ruskin/Wimauma area. This resulted in lost jobs for the farmworkers and increased their need for support. The poorest of the poor have lost some of their previous income.

Beth-El also partners with the First Presbyterian Churches of Arcadia and Ft. Meade also Immokalee to reach out to the farmworkers in these communities. On Fridays, in Immokalee, Beth-el has doubled the number of people they feed from 350 meals per week to now feeding over 700 meals.

Please consider helping these families who are in need of food.
